Coltishall Lock, Norfolk Broads. Coltishall is a pretty village containing some old houses with rounded gables and a fine church. The malting trade flourishes here, the maltsters of the winter turning boat-builders in the summer. The first lock on this river is just above the village, and the fishing hereabouts is abundant and good, especially for jack.

Have just returned from a trip on the Broads
we are having a good
time & good weather.
Is Uncle home yet?
